Hawthorne, Nev. They will endeavor to have the opening annulled on the ground that it was not properly conducted and they will ask, that, if the reservation is opened now, cavalry be placed in charge of the reservation at least two weeks before the signal is given to start. Considerable disorder now exists at Dutch Creek camp on account of the establishment of several saloons in the new mining town.

By Associated Press.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 2.—Preparation for the parliamentary elections are rapidly advancing. The registrative lists are much shorter than those of the last election, owing to the exclusion of thousands of voters under the senate ruling of October 20th. The government has opened a preliminary credit of $250,000 for election expenses, 100,000 more than Count Witte, when premier, spent in all for this purpose.

Work was suspended today at the women's university as a mark of sympathy for two students, Milles Mamevill and Benedictova, who were executed Tuesday at Cronstadt for alleged complicity in the conspiracy, October 15th, to blow up the building where the court-martial trying the mutiny cases were sitting, in revenge for the execution of mutineers. They were both very young and were engaged in their first terroristic attempt.

The supreme military court has confined the sentence imposed on Captain Polzakov of three and a half years imprisonment in a fortress for engaging in revolutionary agitation among the Russian prisoners in Japan. Polzakov was one of the defenders of Port Arthur and decorated with the St. Georges' cross and presented with a golden sword for bravery.

The sentences imposed on twenty-three peasants of the Baltic provinces who organized the attacks on soldiers at Talsen, in December last, have also been confined by the supreme military court. Eight of them will be executed and one will be sentenced to imprisonment for life.

OLD VESUVIUS
CAUSES ALARM.

By Associated Press.

Naples, Nov. 2.—The eruption of Vesuvius of April last is still causing devastating effects. Figures Indicate Great Industrial Growth of the South.

By Associated Press.

Chicago, Nov. 2.—The Record-Herald today says:

More than 1,300,000 tons of steel rails have been ordered by the railroads for delivery in 1907 and within a short time, it is said, orders for as many more tons will be placed with the various mills. The total capacity of the steel mills for a year is about 3,000,000 tons so all of them are assured their capacity orders for 1907. Never before has so many orders for steel rails been placed at with steel mills by railroads, as have been this year for 1907. The demand for new rails does not come so much for new railroad construction as it does for renewals and for relaying tracks with heavier steel. The business of the railroads has increased so enormously that the old light rails are inadequate to carry the train loads and the heavy equipment and heavy power of today.

The railroads of the south are among the heaviest buyers of steel rails for 1907, and it is stated the demand in that section indicates the wonderful growth of the south and the increased demand which is being made on the transportation capacities.

MR. WHITELAW RIED

By Associated Press.

Dundee, Scotland, Nov. 2.—The freedom of the city of Dundee was today conferred on Whitelaw Reid, the American ambassador. In the course of his speech, thanking the municipality the ambassador, referring to the relations between the United States and Great Britain, said the statesmen of either country had no higher task than to preserve these relations. When it was remembered that nearly one third of the entire trade of New York and nearly half the whole trade of the United States was with the British empire all would recognize that there were billions of reasons for maintaining and perpetuating the present cordial relations.

MOUNTED RED SKINS

Train,Resulting in Necessary De-

the Utes.

By Associated Press.

Sheridan, Wyo., Nov. 2.—Further details of a government supply train bound for the camps of the ten and sixth cavalry from Arrada characterizes it as a clever piece of work, evidently planned by some of the older heads of the Utes tribe. According to Driver James Forgen, no Indians were in sight until a bunch of about a hundred, mounted red skins suddenly dashed out of a defile in the hills and quickly surrounded him. They made little noise outside of a few sharp yells in the nature of commands and while several Indians kept Forgen under their rifles the balance rifled his wagon of 3,000 pounds of flour, the sacks of which were strapped to the caissons of the Indians who then disappeared into the hills.

As the result of the raiding of the supply train the troopers are in need, and the operations looking to a chase of the Utes are practically at a standstill until supplies can be had. More supply trains will be sent out at once. Troops from Ft. Kellogg with supplies are now at a stand-on route to the camp of the tenth.

The Utes have completely outfitted the military and are now reported back in Wyoming on the powder river, retracing the route by which they entered Montana. They evidently know of the arrival of the troops at Ashland and have either given up the attempt to reach the Cheyennes or are waiting for that band to meet them in some part of the country. The Utes on bear creek have not moved, according to telephone advices received here.

By Associated Press.

New York, Nov. 2.—Railroad officials who have been conferring with their employees regarding demands by the latter for increased pay and shorter hours, said yesterday that the conferences had been satisfactory and they expected no trouble.

F. D. Underwood, president of the Erie said:

"The engineers and firemen are receiving the best wages they ever received. The conditions are not strike conditions. Men strike when their wages are cut. This year there will be more to adjust than at any other time. Some of the roads in the Erie merger pay by the mile and some by the day and we have been looking for an opportunity to obtain some kind of uniformity. We believe the mileage rate to be the most equitable that is possible and the majority of the men, I believe, think the same way."

Pittsburg, Nov. 2.—The body of Jas. A. McMillan, aged 5 years, was found today in a field quite close to the corner of Burchfield and Murray avenues, in the east end district and but a short distance from his home at No. 39 Burchfield avenue. That he had been robbed and murdered was evident as his head was crushed and his pockets rifled of everything they had contained. His gold watch, as well as several diamonds he wore, were also missing.

The place where the body was found is one of the most lonely in the city. The houses are far apart and few, while the boulevard and avenues are almost deserted in the evening.

It was learned that McMillan went to the country yesterday. His failure to return home last night caused no uneasiness and he frequently was away over night on these trips.

It is the opinion of the police that he was held up by highwaymen and when he resisted they killed him. A large force of police and detectives are working on the case, but so far they are without a clue. McMillan was a manufacturer's agent, said to be quite wealthy.

When ten een contested at a merry ning followers of the manly art, began watching for just such another coup on the part of the Canton man. Simms who seemed the more clever and by far the best at inside work, let up for several rounds and looked to be stalling for an emergency. If he were, he failed to deliver, though he tried in the eighteenth, nineteenth and twentieth but Wing was there to give as well as take.

Speculation at the ringside being entirely barred, there was only the money wagered which had been placed by the Cleveland and Canton admirers of the two men on their arrival in this city. In this respect probably between $400 and $500 was wagered at even money. Simms being a favorite, with the majority of dope artists, but the Cleveland delegation being confident that Wing would stay to the end, or land for a decision at some stage of the contest.

It was 10 o'clock and a few minutes past when the informal reception and smoking moments were declared over, and the boxing bout announced, twenty rounds for points on scientific maneuvers.

Mr. Wigg was first inside the ropes and took the northwest corner, attended by Biz Mackey, the Findlay banian; George Frazier, Barney Walsh and Edward Lemhart, Clevelanders. Simms quickly followed, assisted to the ring by Al Akerman, the wrestler and Jim Crowley, his manager, with Barney Stropp and James Dime also in his corner. The referee announced that hitting in breaks with one arm free was permissible. It was the only agreement between the men, with Marquis of Queensbury rules otherwise governing.

The two lightweights lost no time, sparred for a second and Wing led, landing good left, but was quickly the recipient of a stinging right from Simms, who replied by forcing the Canton man to ropes, fast inside work being accomplished by Simms, who later landed a good right, but the big gloves were like pillows and it was an even exchange before the end, Simms being very clever at countering, and Wing's blows landing repeatedly on the defending gloves of the Canton man.

A rush by Wing and a rapid interchange opened the second round, Simms again being carried to the ropes and Wing the aggressor in the first minute. Simms got to his opponent's nasal organ, and the claret gave him what honor is due but the blow was light and had no bearing, and the round was either's with crowd well satisfied with the fast work being done.

Wing started it again, but was cut down with left jabs and hooks, and two or three slashing uppercuts, which just missed the spot desired, though worrying the Cleveland man. Simms followed his short arm work throughout the round and landed hard right at the close. It was Simms' round. Simms forced the fighting in the fourth and his rapid work caused him to miss footing and go through the ropes; at one time Wing was wild but watchful, and Simms proved his worth at blocking and covering. The round was in favor of the Canton man.

The fifth was filled with fast work on the part of the Canton man, whose blows though landing seemingly in the open, did not bother Wing in the least who butted in and took everything coming, watching a good chance, for his right. He tried it before the close, but missed and slipped to the floor, many thinking a knock-down had occurred. It was purely a slip and the round was even, with Simms seeming to have things well in hand.

Wing started fresher and more aggressive, with plenty of strength and in the sixth, seventh and ninth rounds he clearly outpointed his man and his friends enjoyed the height of their enthusiasm mustered, during these four rounds.

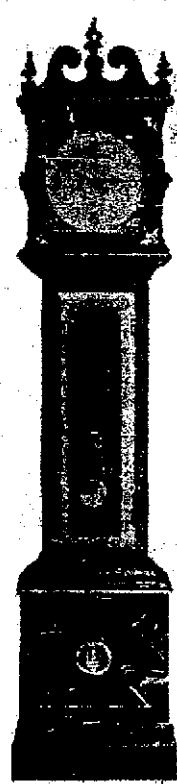

Wing was seemingly tired out with his fast work and the tenth opened with Simms smiling again and back at his close arm work. Wing worried, and Simms had the honors.

The eleventh showed both men strong again and fast work with many clinches; and honors even. The twelfth went to Wing, who chased Simms about, never getting a good landing spot, and Simms plainly saving himself for later work. He tried once, missed and slipped to the floor but was up and away in a flash.

It was give and take, with distant fight intermixed with clinches and short-arm work. Any one's decision at this stage and a free give and take with blows of either stinging no more than baby's pillow fight with papa before the breakfast hour.

Wing in the fourteenth made his spurt and for three rounds did his very best work, being on top his man but could not reach; the tip of his gloves only reaching Simms who used all his cleverness at this stage, and was saving himself.

The end was coming and long range work in the eighteenth availed neither. Wing made one grand try, but missed and it was an even round throughout. Each man were seemingly satisfied that he had nothing on the other, and in the next two rounds long range work intermixed with frequent clinches came thick and fast, Simms was at his best in the nineteenth, but Wing took it all and was ready for more, countering and giving as good as was sent. Neither had a stiff one to land, couldn't have negotiated it if they had. It was clearly an even affair, and closing the twentieth with good sparring, light jabs, frequent clinches and body blows, the men were in the center of the ring when the bell sounded on a countered exchange of rights.

The referee announced his decision without momentary delay, and declared the bout cleanly fought, a pleasing exhibition of the manly art, with honors even. His decision gave universal satisfaction.

LUTHERANS LAUD
THEIR PRESIDENT.

By Associated Press.
Canton, O., Nov. 2.—Just before adjourning the Luther League of America, ordered this message sent to President Roosevelt.

"The Luther League of America in convention at Canton, Ohio, appreciates your high sentiment concerning the Lutheran church as a vital factor in the religious development of the nation. We pledge our support of the government in the words of Timothy 1:1-14."

The sentiment of the president to which reference is made was in substance that a great problem confronts the Lutheran church of America in helping the large number of immigrants who come from lands in which Lutheran faith predominates.

BRYAN WRITES

Endorsing Mr. Hearst's
Candidacy.

BIRD S. COLER TALKS.

Says Bryan's Letter Should
be Enough for All Democrats.

Also That Beneficiaries of Frenzied Politics Are Now Hysterical.

By Associated Press.
New York, Nov. 2.—William J.
Bryan has written a letter to Bird S.
Coler, borough president of Brooklyn,
endorsing the candidacy of William R.
Hearst for governor.

Mr. Bryan's letter follows:
"My Dear Mr. Coler:—I am very anxious to see Hearst elected and would have come to New York to help him if I thought an outside speaker would have been of assistance. From indications, however, he is going to win as he ought to. If have any friends there I want them to vote for him."

(Signed)
"BRYAN"

Mr. Bryan wrote, as quoted, in a personal letter to Mr. Coler dated at Madison, Ills. and received on October 31st. The portion of the letter not given out was of a personal nature.
Mr. Coler telegraphed Mr. Bryan and secured his authority to make a portion of the letter public. Mr. Coler in giving out the letter said:

Mr. Bryan's letter should be enough for all democrats in this state. As for independents, I cannot imagine that they are going to take the advice of the political leaders.

They will, I think, before voting ask themselves, "Why is it that every leading beneficiary of what was known as 'commercialism in politics'
is now utterly and hysterically hostile
to Mr. Hearst?" Some of Mr. Hearst's newspaper opponents must think the American public has lost its sense of humor when they solemnly quote
statements of Croker and McGowan,
those ideal reformers.

Mr. Roosevelt's speech last night will, I think, help Mr. Hearst. It reminds me of the poster which contradicted so much toward our success last year.
A cowardly slander is a cowardly slander no matter who utters it."
Chas. F. Murphy, the Tammany Hall leader, in an interview today said he believed that neither President Roosevelt's sentiments as expressed through Secretary Root at Urica last night, nor Richard Croker and the endorsement of Senator McGowan's stand will affect the general election.

"The people's minds are made up,"
said Mr. Murphy. "They will vote for Mr. Hearst."

THE BULLET OR THE HOLE?

Which Goes Through the Board First?
Answers to Odd Questions.

When a bullet is shot entirely through a board which is held in a first the bullet or the hole? The bullet makes the hole and the extreme point of the bullet set through the board at the same time, but the hole
does not get entirely through the board until after the hole is entirely through.
It is evident, that the rear of the bullet must be out of the hole it makes before it is entirely through the board, while the hole is entirely through just as soon as the widest part of the bullet has passed through.

How cold is it when it is twice as cold as 2 degrees above zero? There are two zeros one marked 0 on the thermometer, and one known as absolute zero, which is understood to mark the absence of all heat. The zero of Fahrenheit's thermometer is obtained by immersing a tube of mercury in a mixture of snow and common salt and marking the place where the mercury stands in the tube. Absolute zero is 4.0 degrees below this zero. Now,
"twice as cold" is exactly equivalent to half as hot; therefore, when it is half as hot as 2 degrees above zero, or 4 F., it is 20.0 degrees below the zero on the thermometer.

Is any man strong enough to break an egg held end to end between the palms of his hands? The force required to break an egg in this manner has been found to be between seventy-five and eighty pounds. A great many men can exert this pressure. The probable reason for the failure of many to accomplish it is that they are a little afraid of the result and do not press so hard as they can.

If there was a tunnel through the center of the earth and an iron ball was dropped into it, where would the ball come to rest? Unless it was retarded by the resistance of the air, the ball would go through to the other side
and then fall back to its starting point, repeating the operation forever. It is retarded by the resistance of the air, it would ultimately come to rest at the center of the earth.

When an automobile turns a sharp corner at a rapid rate of speed, which pair of wheels, inside or outside, receives the greatest strain? The centrifugal force developed by the automobile is directed outward; therefore it is impossible for it to tip inward. The outside rail of a railroad track on a curve is made higher than the inside rail because of the tendency of the train to tip outward. A practical demonstration may be had by standing on the rear platform of a street car and noting which way the body is thrown when the car turns a curve.

A chicken does not eat anything during the first twenty-four hours of its existence, yet it doubles in size. What does it live on? The amount of the egg left in the chicken's stomach after it is hatched will supply nutriment for several days. As to the apparent increase in size, when the organs are reformed
they expand; therefore the chick appears larger. The down becomes fluffy when dry, and this also increases the size of the chicken, but it is not a fact that there is any great change in the weight during the first day.

Why does an egg weigh more after it has been pulled than before? The increase in weight is due to the moisture which has been absorbed by the porous shell of the egg.—Sunday Magazine.

A Member For Cork.

A famous character in London when Frazer's Magazine was in its heyday was Sergeant Murphy, member of parliament for Cork. The sergeant was one day at dinner with Samuel Warren, author of "Ten Thousand and a Year," and one of the most conceited authors of his own or any other time.
This story was then appearing in Frazer's in serial form. Warren, who was always fishing for compliments, said to Murphy across the table, "Have you read that thing that is coming out in Frazer's?" "What thing?" said Murphy. "Ten Thousand and a Year," replied Warren. "Yes,
I have read it," admitted the sergeant.
"What do you think of it?" continued
the novelist. "Hardly fair to ask me,"
said Murphy, "considering I wrote it myself."

Another acquaintance of Murphy's was constantly addicted to boasting of his aristocratic friends. At a dinner party where there were several Roman Catholics present conversation centered around the subject of fasting.
When the sergeant's friend struck in
"It is very strange how little the highest ranks regard fast days. I was dining at the Duke of Norfolk's on a fast day three weeks ago, and there was not a bit of fish at dinner." "I suppose," said Murphy in the midst of the deep silence that followed, "that they had eaten it in the dining room."

Charlotte Bronte's Writing.

It is generally believed that "Jane Eyre" was written by Charlotte Bronte on the backs of old envelopes or very small scraps of paper, which the authress carefully pinned together and numbered. Miss Bronte wrote so small a hand that some of her manuscripts can only be read by the aid of a magnifying glass. It is declared that on a piece of paper no larger than a playing card
she would write from 400 to 500 words, and after that would insert so many corrections that the printer found it well-nigh impossible to set it up. When she wrote "Jane Eyre" Miss Bronte had read few novels, but those by Thackeray, whom she greatly admired.
Thackeray commended the authress on her great book, but complained that the plot was familiar to him, whereupon Miss Bronte modestly replied that she thought it was original, inasmuch as she had read so little.

DINNER STORIES.

In a London street a girl of twelve and a boy of ten were playing a family drama of "mother and father,"
and Bobby was being instructed in his role. "Now, Bobby," said the girl,
"you just walk up to the corner and wait there till we tell you to come.
We're a-goin' ter git dinner ready, an'
when we calls yer, yer ter come 'ome
and chuck the fings about." "Ho!"
said Bobby. "Come, 'ome drunk, do!"
And why for?" "Why for, stoopid!"
replied the girl, with a glance of mingled scorn and pity. "Ain't it Saturday?"

A good story is told of John G. Carlisle in the current Harper's Weekly.
Mr. Carlisle was once approached by a well-known member of the New York bar, a man of most patronizing manner.

"I see, Carlisle," he observed loftily,
"that the Supreme Court has overruled
you in the case of Mullins vs. Jenkinson." "But," he added, in his grand way, "you, Carlisle, need feel no concern about your reputation."

Carlisle chuckled. "Quite so," he agreed. "I am only concerned for the reputation of the supreme court."

James J. Hill, the big railroad man, has carefully cultivated a knowledge of agriculture with the aid of his model farm near St. Paul. Thus he has been able to tell farmers what they can best grow for their own profit, for by doing so they profit the Great Northern road. On one occasion a congressman asked him if he was raising pigs. Mr. Hill said he was and that he fed them dry fodder.

There's where you make a mistake," Mr. Hill, triumphantly exclaimed the congressman; "it takes a pig three times as long to eat dry fodder as wet." "And how much do you see" on the pig's time to be worth?" said Mr.
Hill, thus closing the conversation.

"Wealth has its advantages," said
the philosopher.

"Yes," answered the man with spontaneous inclinations. "It must be monotonous for a man to be able to bet $5,000 or $10,000 on a horse race

LEGED PLUMBERS TRUST GRANTED BRIEF REPRIEVE

Case Set for Today Continued.

Be Taken Up Not Soon Than the February Term.

BLACKBURN CASE

Plumbers Trust Involves Itself Into a Question of Defendant's Sanity.

Man Grows Hysterical as She Listens to the Testimony.

First of the test cases to try to answer the questions involved in the indictment against the alleged members of the Trust in this city, was set on the court calendar for this morning at nine o'clock.

It is never to be no test made in indictments either today or at the trial of court.

It was neither fault of Prosecutor nor fault of the defense ready for this morning to try the issues of the criminal trial against Mrs. Blackburn coupled with the fact that the will allege the criminal indictment resulted in an agreement between the prosecutor and, Mr. Blackburn and Weadcock attorney.

Lima Heating & Plumbing Co. for a postponement until the next term of court when a new indictment of the case will be made.

Lima Heating & Plumbing Co. was indicted with eleven others for "conspiracy in restraint of trade" and took up the defense in the cases.

BLACKBURN COLLAPSES.

Throughout the Introduction of Sanity Evidence.

It is making a very hard case to establish the fact that Mrs. Blackburn the Beaverdam woman, trial for larceny, was of unsound mind at the time of the alleged crime in the home of Alice Bollinger.

It was incompetent therefore to any crime, or plan same, or to the bulk of the evidence produced by the defense is on the ground that this morning an hypothesis on the issue was advanced and several physicians called to stand for expert testimony.

One of the defense has seriously injured Mrs. Blackburn who collapsed and sobbing bitterly almost to the questions of her sanity reviewed by physician, neighbors and friends. The case should be put late this afternoon.

The suit is based on alleged will of the part of the deceased Wm. Roberts to leave his estate to his surviving brothers and sisters at his death. He died intestate, and his wife as an heir.

The cause of action plaintiffs at separate actions alleged to have presented their claims to the late Wm. Roberts as administrator of his estate, and that said claims have been rejected.

How to Cure a Cold. A question of how to cure a cold is not a new one. It is a question of how to cure a cold in the least time and with the least danger of complications.

For the quicker a cold is cured the less the danger of complications. The danger of complications is the danger of pneumonia, bronchitis, and other serious diseases.

GOOD MEETING

Held With the Citizens at Harrod

In the Interest of the County Memorial Building Project.

A DOUBLE QUARTETTE

Delighted the Audience With Some Excellent Vocal Music.

Splendid Addresses by Dr S. A. Baxter and Prof. C. C. Miller.

The public meeting held in the Winegardner hall at Harrod last night, in the interest of the Memorial building proposition was a magnificent success.

A fact for which too much credit cannot be given those who were in charge of the arrangements and those who participated in the evening's program.

Mr. J. L. B. Leatherman, one of the pioneer citizens of Harrod, officiated as chairman of the meeting and his splendid efficiency in that capacity was notable.

A double quartette of male singers accompanied the speakers of the evening, Dr. S. A. Baxter and Prof. C. C. Miller, from this city and rendered a number of very fine selections during the evening, under the leadership of Prof. John F. Jones.

After an opening address by chairman Leatherman, Prof. Miller was introduced and he delivered a very interesting scholarly address which was clearly applied to the purpose of the meeting and was an eloquent tribute to the venerable pioneers of the county whose memory he seeks to perpetuate by the erection of a lasting monument in the form of the proposed memorial auditorium.

Prof. Miller's address was listened to with perfect attention by the audience and it left a lasting impression upon all who heard him.

The last speaker of the evening was Dr. Baxter, whose lecture on "Patriotic Songs," proved to be an oratorical gem that appealed to the patriotic sentiment of everyone of his hearers.

He, too, paid an eloquent tribute to the sturdy pioneers of the county and to the veterans who had served their country so well under Old Glory. His lecture was deeply appreciated by every person present and it aroused a sentiment that will not be forgotten on election day in Harrod and throughout the county.

Foley's Kidney Cure will cure any case of kidney trouble that is not beyond medical aid. Wm. M. Melville, Old Postoffice corner.

ELECTION DAY IS ON TUESDAY, NOVEMBER SIXTH.

A Specific For Anæmia

Actual Proof in a Recent Remarkable Cure.

DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS MAKE NEW BLOOD.

Used for a Generation They Are Recognized as a Safe and Efficient Family Remedy.

When the body becomes run down, either as a result of overwork, worry or a severe illness, an examination of the blood would show it to be weak and watery. This condition is called anaemic, which is the medical term for "bloodless." The common symptoms are paleness of the lips, gums and cheeks, shortness of breath and palpitation of the heart after the slightest exertion, dull eyes and loss of appetite. Anæmia itself is a dangerous disease and it may gradually pass into consumption. It must be cured by treating its cause, which is the poor condition of the blood. The vital fluid must be made strong and healthy thereby enabling it to carry the necessary nourishment to every tissue of the body.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the greatest builder of rich, new blood and they have been curing anæmia and other blood diseases for nearly a generation, during which time they have come to be recognized as an invaluable household remedy.

Mr. Louis L. Clark, a painter, of 19 Lincoln Place, Plainfield, N. J., says: "Lost, May I was obliged to undergo an operation for appendicitis and while the operation in itself was successful, I did not recover my strength and health. I was confined to my bed for over a month and was under the doctor's care. When I was able to get up my legs were so weak and unsteady that I could only walk with a cane with difficulty. My stomach was very weak and my appetite poor and I was not getting proper nourishment. My heart was very irregular."

"I was getting no better and could not think of going back to work. I was discouraged, when a neighbor told me that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills had cured her and advised me to try them. I began taking them about the middle of June and soon felt so much better that I kept on until now I am entirely cured."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a never-failing blood-builder. They have cured diseases due to impure or watery blood that have baffled the best medical skill. They are able to do this, because they contain the elements necessary to make new and pure blood. Rheumatism, chlorosis, after-effects of the grip and fevers, are some of the blood diseases cured by these pills and, as the health of the nerves depends upon the purity of the blood, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are useful in such nerve diseases as neuralgia, nervous debility, sleeplessness, dizziness and even locomotor ataxia.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

THIRD DISTRICT IS SURELY DOUBTFUL.

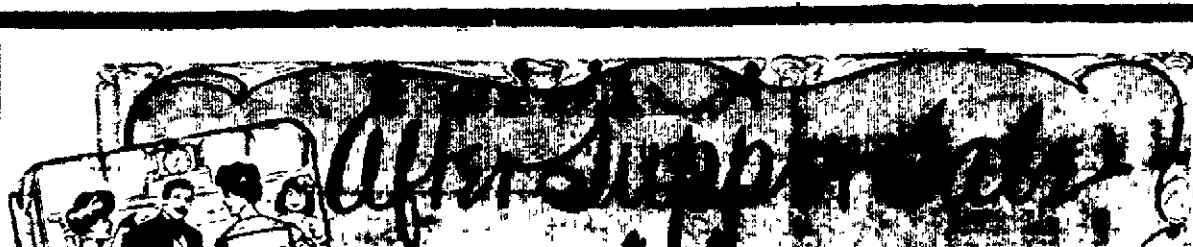

Hamilton, O., Nov. 2.—One of the most hotly contested congressional elections in Ohio is fast drawing near in the Third Ohio district. The contest is between former State Senator J. Eugene Harding, the republican candidate, and former Governor James E. Campbell. Two years ago Colonel Robert M. Nevins, republican, was elected in this district by over 7,000 plurality. The democrats this year had great difficulty in getting a candidate, but finally persuaded former Governor Campbell to come out from New York and make the race. The governor has been speaking every night for the past four weeks, while the republicans have been conducting an active campaign, but without much of the red fire and oratory that has marked the democratic proceedings. From an unprejudiced standpoint, it can be said that the candidacy of Governor Campbell has placed the result in the Third Ohio district in some doubt. He has united the various democratic factions in the counties of Butler, Montgomery and Preble, and for the first time in many years the democrats will present a united front. The republicans, however, are not unmindful of the condition that confronts them. Congressman Nicholas Longworth spoke at Middletown last night, and United States Senator Charles W. Dick will speak in this city on Saturday night. A whirlwind finish will be given the campaign by both parties.

Henry E. Jones, of Tampa, Fla., writes: "I can thank God for my present health, due to Foley's Kidney Cure. I tried doctors and all kinds of kidney cures, but nothing done me much good till I took Foley's Kidney Cure. Four bottles cured me, and I have no more pain in my back and shoulders. I am 62 years old and suffered long, but thanks to Foley's Kidney Cure I am well and can walk and enjoy myself. It is a pleasure to recommend it to those needing a kidney medicine. Wm. M. Melville, Old Postoffice corner."

1ST DOOR SOUTH OF COURT HOUSE.

INFANTS' DEATH CAUSED BY CANDY.

Philadelphia, Pa.—Albert Engle, the 3 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Engle of 2526 south Hicks street, died from what Dr. William Zerns Supplee is inclined to think was poison contained in coloring matter in gumdrops, said to have been made by one of the largest drug manufacturers in the city. The boy's father, mother and 6 year old sister Helen, were made violently ill through the same agency which caused his death.

The gum drops were eaten between 9 and 10 o'clock on Saturday night. Two hours later the whole family became ill and Dr. Supplee was summoned. All save the little one responded to his treatment, although they suffered greatly.

The effect on the baby was marked, and nothing the physician could do had any effect on him. "He seemed to collapse from the beginning," said Dr. Supplee, "and a strange feature of the case was that, while he had a temperature of 105 degrees, his pulse was hardly perceptible. His heart seemed to subside at once and grew weaker with each minute. After his death spots appeared all over his body—a sign that the heart had been affected. I thought at first that the illness of the whole family might have been caused simply by a failure to digest the candy, none of whom ate freely, only a quarter of a pound having been purchased. But I had reason to change my mind. They did not eat anything at dinner which would have caused the illness."

Dr. J. K. Auginbaugh, from whose drug store, at Fifteenth and Snyder avenue, the candy was purchased, says that he bought it from a drug firm which makes a side line of confections, guaranteed to contain only harmless vegetable coloring matter. "I have eaten gumdrops out of the package from which those sold to Mr. Engle came," he said, "and have sold them to persons in the neighborhood. This is the first time I have heard of unpleasant results following the eating of them."

You will never tire of Mrs. Austin's Pancakes. A fresh supply now on hand at your grocers.

PER'S MEDICINES IN GREAT DEMAND.

Remarkable demand for the discovery medicines with T. Cooper has been having wonderful success in the Stomach and Kidney troubles, Rheumatism, and various ailments. His visit in New Orleans the past few weeks has been a sensation in the South, of which has never been remedies are well known section of the country, and cures which they have in St. Louis, Milwaukee, Minneapolis, and other cities of the central western are well remembered. The druggists say they have never seen such a constant and continued demand for marvelous cures that are published everywhere are a universal interest. Newspapers of New Orleans printing interviews with those cases are most extraordinary and as this, the last week's visit draws to a close, it seems to have in rather than abated. In particular that has been a special attention during the past few days is that of a Labusquiere, 1014 Bur Street, New Orleans, who is cured for various diseases. There was a twinkle in the man's eye and smile on his face as he said, "I am pleased to state my case has been cured, for my case has been remarkable one, and I am the opportunity to tell the public what these wonderful medicines have done for me. My suffering for the past fifteen years has been more than I can describe, for during all that time I have seldom had a well day. My appetite was very irregular. Sometimes I could not get enough to eat and at other times the very sight of food would make me sick. I suffered greatly from constipation. I did not seem to get any strength from what I ate, was always tired, and the slightest exertion would wear me out completely. It was a great effort for me to attend to my duties. I was very nervous and at night could not rest well. I would wake up in the morning feeling as tired as when I went to bed. There were many days that I did not have a headache, and times would have queer dizzy spells. I thought for a time that I had cancer and doctor for it but without relief. Nothing I could do seemed to benefit me, and when I began to hear of the wonderful success Cooper was having with his medicines in the treatment of cases similar to mine, I began using his medicines. After I had taken his New Discovery medicine only a few days, the horrible tapeworm of enormous size passed from my system and then I knew what had been causing me all this trouble. From that time I improved rapidly and now feel well and strong again. I will gladly give any information I can to any one who is suffering as I was." The sale of Cooper's medicine in Lima has been phenomenal and Wm. M. Melville's drug store, where the medicines are sold in his city it is said that some very remarkable cures have been reported.

HEAD OF WABASH

Frederic A. Delano Says
Wages Must Soon
Increase.

COSTS MORE TO LIVE.

Prices of Materials Have Gone Up 10 Per Cent
in Past Year.

President Frederic A. Delano, of the Wabash, being interviewed by a representative of the Wall Street Journal, expressed himself freely regarding the big Gould system as follows:

"Operating conditions on the western railroads are about the same as a year ago, only there is considerable dissatisfaction among certain classes of labor. The men feel they should get more pay, and I think we are on the eve of another general advance in wages of employees."

"The last advance in wages on western roads was 15 per cent in 1903. Officials and men then thought the top of the wave had been reached but the wave has kept going up ever since and the men want a still larger share of the prosperity. They cannot be blamed for feeling as they do. I never blame men for asking for more pay, but I do blame them for seeking to impose rules and restrictions on the companies that hamper us in the conduct of our business. On that proposition I will fight to the last ditch. Some roads made a bad mistake the last time in acceding to arbitrary demands of that kind."

"I have heard of no new demands being formulated recently. The little trouble Wabash had with its machinists has been all settled. There seemed to have been some misunderstanding between the men and the union chiefs."

"The prices of materials used by the railroads have increased in the aggregate fully 10 per cent within a year. Our operating ratio, however, is running about the same, or 64 per cent. The increase in traffic earnings is about 12 per cent on Wabash, and the percentage of expenses to gross earnings is holding steady. The 64 per cent included considerable betterments and it may be that our policy in this respect will be modified as the result of the new bond issue."

"I do not believe in capitalizing improvements free. For illustration, the straightening of a line does not bring new business, it merely improves the machine with which transportation is produced. So it should be an operating charge."

"Wabash has outlined an extensive program of improvements to cost $50,000,000. This will be spread over eight or ten years. As we double track the line we will adjust grades and make everything symmetrical."

"It is not our single track that worries us so much as inadequate terminal facilities and insufficient equipment. We handle a great deal more traffic if we had the facilities."

"So far as the single track is concerned there is more revenue to be made per mile of road on a single than on a double track. Development reaches a point, however, when a double track is necessary. In any event it is a comfortable thing to have."

"I believe that Hepburn rate law will help the railroads the next two or three years, but eventually it will hurt them by hurting the country. The tendency of all commissions is to base rates on mileage, any other basis being too confusing. The new law will make rates too inflexible and in time will injure the business interests of the country."

Country Has Nearly 2,000,000 Cars. While shippers are calling for freight cars it is worth while looking at the figures to see how many there are to do the inland transportation of the country. In round numbers, the freight, baggage, mail and express cars of the United States number 1,750,000. In the last ten years 250,000 cars have been added, and 750,000 cars in the last twenty years. In 1880 there were only 544,185 cars, and in 1888 there were 1,011,943. There has been an average increase of 23,000 freight cars during the last ten years, the increase being much higher under the present state of great prosperity.

While this seems to be a big average, even for the United States, it has proportionately been much exceeded in Canada in the last few years. For a long time the Angus shops of the Canadian Pacific have been turning out freight cars at rates varying from 20 to 24 a day, or more than 6,200 a year. The Grand Trunk also has been making large additions to its freight car equipment, as well as the Canadian Northern and other lines, which would probably, between them, bring the total up to not far from 12,000 cars a year for all the Canadian roads.

This average unquestionably will be much increased in the future as the development of the west by the Grand Trunk Pacific and other lines advances.

New Rates in Effect. The long talked of reduction in passenger rates throughout this territory went into effect Wednesday midnight. The general basis of rates is a maximum of two and one-half cents a mile in Indiana, Ohio and a portion of Pennsylvania, covering what is known as the Central Passenger association territory. Incidentally, actions previously taken will extend the maximum rates of two and one-half cents a mile through the east, covering all of Pennsylvania and New York, as well as the New England territory.

This is the first general revision of rates that has been made in the Central Passenger association territory in more than twenty-five years, and in some respects, the most radical reduction that has been made in fifty years. It is the natural outcome of the action of the legislature of Ohio at its session last winter, in reducing the rates applicable in this territory to 200 miles.

Cheaper Mileage Books. The Scheepers syndicate has arranged to issue mileage books which will reduce the cost of travel over any and all of its lines in Ohio and Indiana to a minimum cost of one cent and one half per mile. The books will contain coupons for one thousand miles of transportation and will be sold for the sum of fifteen dollars.

THE CUVIERS Held One of Their Enjoyable Banquets Last Night.

The Cuvier club, an organization of well known young men of the city, made famous by the magnificent banquets its members have held from time to time, held one of its highly enjoyable sessions at a banquet table in the dining room at the Pullman cafe last night, with twelve members and two newspaper scouts seated at the beautifully decorated table. The menu was made up of the best the season affords and it was served in the finest of style by caterers John Sherrill and Dick Murphy.

A season of good after dinner stories followed the banquet proper and the merry party adjourned at midnight. The affair was a magnificent one and the boys are to be congratulated. Another like it cannot occur too soon.

Man Wanted.

By Associated Press.

Wausau, Wis., Nov. 2.—Leonard Leopold, who is wanted in connection with the murder of Mrs. Margaret Leslie, in Chicago, several weeks ago, was arrested in this city last night. He reached here Tuesday night, having come from Mankato, Minn., and registered at the Hotel Northern as Geo. Hanly, of Mankato, Minn. That night and Wednesday night he slept at the hotel after spending the evening on the west side of the city. Wednesday night he was caught putting slugs into a slot machine and held in custody for a short time by a special officer, but was allowed to go. Nothing is known of his movements during Thursday, but in the evening he was noticed to have been drinking, and in an unguarded moment told Police Commissioner Frank Henrich, that he was wanted somewhere for some crime. Henrich gave the tip to a police officer and a moment or two later, Leopold was placed under arrest. He was taken to the city hall and denied that he was Leopold. The chief of police threatened to bring his relatives to identify him, and then Leopold said: "I am Leopold and the man they are looking for."

He was searched and a miscellaneous lot of articles were found in his pockets, he had $1.50 in cash, an Elk's pin and a railway ticket, a knife and scapula. The important thing found 35 cents. H. F. Vortkamp.

was a note book from which several pages had been torn. On the first of the remaining pages was a note addressed to C. A. Owen, Chicago, which reads:

"This will introduce Mr. Warren, a good friend of mine. If you can help him out with some conductor, you will do me a great favor."

The note was signed Billy Dowd.

On the second page was a note addressed to Will Main, signed "Nellie." This read:

"This man is a friend of mine. If you can square him with some good conductor going out west it will be appreciated by me."

Leopold strenuously denies any connection with the murder of Mrs. Leslie. He said that after the crime was committed Nicholas came to him and asked him to dispose of some diamonds. To do this he went to a place on State street, in Chicago, but the pawn broker threatened to call an officers. Leopold said he then left the place. Leopold says that after leaving Chicago, he went to Iowa and then north Minnesota, and thence to Wausau. While on a train in Iowa, the train was searched and a man sitting in the next seat to him was arrested and taken from the train on suspicion of being Leopold. Owing to this incident he hurried out of the state.

Howard Nicholas who was first arrested in connection with the murder of Mrs. Leslie betrayed no concern when he was informed of the arrest of Leopold, and was told that Leopold had said that he knew less about the actual murder than Nicholas. "Is that so?" drawled Nicholas and he would say nothing more.

Certain Cure for Croup—Used for Ten Years Without a Failure.

Mr. W. C. Bott, a Star City, Ind., hardware merchant, is enthusiastic in his praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. His children have all been subject to croup and he has used this remedy for the past ten years, and though they much feared the croup, he has always felt safe upon retiring when a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was in the house. His oldest child was subject to severe attacks of croup, but this remedy never failed to effect a speedy cure. He has recommended it to friends and neighbors and all who have used it say that it is unequalled for croup and whooping cough. For sale by all druggists.
